Just three more days until the fair.

The car will be at Illinois state fair next week.

To-day has been ideal Pecos Valley weather.

If you are not a subscriber of THE DAILY RECORD, why not?

Roswell will celebrate next week and entertain hundreds of visitors.

There will be a new moon tomorrow in honor of the fair week. Will it be wet or dry?

The Methodist ministers in attendance at the annual conference express themselves as delighted with Roswell.

Amarillo is getting worked up over the piano contest which is to be decided October 7th. After Roswell gets the fair off its hands the piano contest will probably come to the front here.

At times the shipwrecked sailor eats his mate, And eating ends some missionaries' tale; But think how truly dreadful were his fate If Edward Everett Hale.—Life.

The Atlanta Constitution says:—

"Senator Gorman's staunch democracy, his splendid capabilities, his knowledge of men and measures, gained through long experience in public life, are satisfactory to all elements in the party."

The Roswell fair advertising car is to be a cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night, declares the Roswell Record. By day it will be visible to hundreds of people, and at night pictures will be thrown on a large screen illustrating the Pecos valley and its products.—Optic.

The New Mexican mentions the arrival in Santa Fe of Capt. W. C. Reid of Roswell. It is rather strange that the New Mexican in the interest of truth hadn't taken the opportunity to ascertain the report it published to the effect that Capt. Reid had withdrawn from the race for the judgeship of the Fifth judicial district. But perhaps it isn't so strange after all.—Optic.

Already strangers are beginning to come in for the fair, and hotels and boarding houses are filling up. It is only three more days until the big fair opens and preparations are being made all over the city to accommodate the immense crowd which will surely be here. Every one who has one or more rooms to spare is preparing to accommodate all they can and all the hotels have put in extra beds, and have cots ready to put up in any place room can be found. Even with all this preparation it is feared that Roswell will fall far short of making all the people as comfortable as they would like. In a few more days special trains of from five to seven coaches will begin to bring the sight-seers and pleasure seekers into the city. Let every one be ready and do the best they can to make them all welcome.

Bids Called For.

The Board of County Commissioners of Chaves county will consider sealed bids for the construction of a public highway bridge across the Rio Felix near the town of Hagerman, Chaves county, N. M., as per plans and specifications on file in the probate clerk's office at Roswell.

The Board of County Commissioners will furnish all piling—52 oak piling—on the ground where bridge is to be constructed. The successful bidder to furnish all other material of every kind and description as per specifications and all labor and other things necessary to properly construct said bridge.

Work to begin soon as pilings are on the ground after contract is let and pushed to completion.

All bids must be filed in the probate clerk's office at Roswell, not later than 2 o'clock p. m., October 5, 1903.

The board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

By order of Board.

W. M. ATKINSON, September 9, 1903.
